(e) U.S. Government Grants Refundable

Funds provided by the U.S. Government under the Federal Perkins and Nursing Student Loan programs are loaned to qualified students and may be reloaned after collection. These funds are ultimately refundable to the Government and are presented in the accompanying balance sheet as a liability.

(f) Split-Interest Agreements

The University's split-interest agreements with donors consist primarily of irrevocable charitable remainder trusts and charitable gift annuities for which the University serves as trustee. Assets associated with such split-interest agreements are included in investments. Contributions are recognized at the date the trusts are established or when funds are transferred from the donor to the University after recording liabilities for the present value of the estimated future payments to

(20) Contingency

The University is involved in various legal proceedings and claims arising in the normal course of business. Management of the University does not expect the ultimate resolution of these actions to have a material adverse effect on the University's financial position.

The action pending, at June 30, 2000, in New York State Supreme Court, Westchester County, commenced by the Sisters of Divine Compassion of the State of New York (the Religious Order) was amicably resolved on February 14, 2001. The resolution consisted of an exchange of real property between the parties in which the University purchased land previously leased from the Religious Order. Total consideration paid to the Religious Order for acquisition of this property amounted to $3,721,646.

(21) Subsequent Events

As a result of the September 11, 2001 attack on the World Trade Center, the leased space and all equipment, furniture, and fixtures where the University's World Trade Institute operated were totally
